Re: 2025 Boston Early Music Festival Press Ticket Policy

Dear Cultural Arts Editors and Press Colleagues:

Media organizations planning to review the 2025 Boston Early Music Festival are invited to request:

- two (2) complimentary tickets to a single performance of Keiser's Octavia;
- two (2) complimentary tickets to the performance of Telemann's Pimpinone and Ino in Boston;
- two (2) complimentary tickets to any of the 18 Festival Concerts as well as the performances during the Organ Mini-Festival and the Keyboard Mini-Festival.

Journalists wishing to cover the Exhibition and its associated events may request one (1) 2025 Exhibition pass. For BEMF performances in the Berkshires, each media organization may request two (2) complimentary tickets to a single performance of Telemann's Pimpinone and Ino.

Ticket sales are an important source of revenue for the Boston Early Music Festival. Please be advised that complimentary media tickets for certain performances may be subject to availability. All requests for media tickets must be made prior to the start of the Festival (Sunday, June 8, 2025) and ideally by Friday, May 30, 2025. If only one (1) complimentary ticket is required, we would be most grateful if you would indicate this when you request your seats. Complimentary media tickets are non-transferrable and are available for pick-up at the Will-Call table prior to each performance.

Additional tickets may be purchased when requesting media tickets. No more than one request may be made by any individual media organization or publication for any Festival program.
